

More Ideas for Food

- Have a tea party, serving your favorite tea. Pick up some pastries at the local bakery. Set the table with your favorite cups and some pretty napkins.
- Make a submarine sandwich with your favorite meats and cheeses.
- Dip spoons in melted chocolate. Once they have hardened, they make great gifts as coffee stirrers.
- Make a birthday cake from scratch or use your favorite cake mix. Decorate it, add candles, and get some birthday napkins.
- Go out to eat at a restaurant in your area where you have never eaten before.
- Make a book of your favorite recipes to give to a friend or family member who likes to cook.
- Buy a bag of fortune cookies and open one each day.
- Get out the silver and polish it.
- Collect menus from your favorite restaurants.
- Send a care package of nonperishable food to a child who is away at school.
- Cook an ethnic dish that you have always wanted to try.
- Call a friend and go to a brunch or buffet.
- Pack yourself a lunch for the next day.
- Call up several people and invite them to a potluck dinner.
- Chop up vegetables and make a pot of homemade vegetable soup.
- Make your favorite breakfast foods for dinner one evening.
- Scoop out a watermelon and fill it with fresh fruits that you have cut up.
- Go to the bookstore and find a new cookbook to buy.
- Go to a farmer's market to get your produce for the week.
- Reorganize your recipe file.
- Choose a recipe, make it, and freeze it to use at a later date.
- Every day for an entire week, give up a food that you enjoy.
- Take a meal to someone who is homebound.
- Rearrange the dishes in the cupboards.

